

- 1.Explain about python
2. Explain why python is one of the fastest growing programming language in the world
3. Explain the about various features of python
4. Differences between web development and software development
5. Explain about python interpreter programming language
6. Explain about Dynamically Typed Programming language
7. Explain about Object Oriented Programming Language
8. Why we can represent data in the form objects in python
9. What is the difference b/w primitive types data and object types data
10. What is the latest version of python and how it is differ from other versions